Please summarize the highlights, key points and any specific recommendations from your group discussion:

Discussion of community and longing to connect and learn how to build community. Recognition that we need to learn HOW to build community and uplifting each other. * Having a time and space in the forum for Peer to Peer discussions, sharing teaching tools, workshoping and hands on for tools that have been working * Having time in the forum for community scheduling, sharing, building on regional events that each of us can then support and be aware of. Helping create the heart of a community. * Having time to sharing things that work and challenges and workshoping on those with each other. * Having trainers be part of creating the curriculum of the forum * Relevance of tt course in how its presented with new learning, new students with new way and generation, looking at the tt courses relevance and space within it for change while retaining the structure - bringing open flow into it. * Support for each other regionally - with each other immersions, society and time change of people now taking KY * keeping teachings authentic while reaching out with new learning styles and tools, doing this as part of tt and teaching.
