

2018 Malaysia Trainer Forum

Cross-Cultural Communication: Building Diverse Community

List of the participants in the group:

All group discussion

Write down ideas that your group comes up with during this discussion:

The teachings have no color or boundary lines. When we bow to the teachings, and get out of our own way, we can serve all. Getting TT materials in all the languages is important. But you have to find the right translator(s). The language in the book is sometimes over intellectual and complicated. So that is one "population" or culture speaking to a specific type of person. Simpler would serve everyone better. What creative ways can KRI structure payments to make trainings more affordable? Pointers to English mantras would be great, as they are accessible and allowable in places like schools where they won't let us teach mantras.

Are there any questions that need clarification about your topic?

No

Please summarize the highlights, key points and any specific recommendations from your group discussion:

Above