Part 2: Text Guidelines

Text Guidelines

1. Refer to Level 1 or Level One (do not use Roman numerals such as Level I)
2. Graduates are certified as KRI Level One Instructors. Both terms Instructor(s) and Teacher(s) may be used for variety, but do not use the term Teachers exclusively.
3. Do not include curriculum topics that are not part of the Level One Aquarian Teacher manual.
4. If conveying trainer credentials, use descriptive language in their bios, and/or reference their standing in the Academy. Use of the terms “Senior” or “Master” is not appropriate.
5. Avoid promises, claims or guarantees such as: You will master Kundalini Yoga; You will become a Kundalini Yoga Master; You will be totally transformed; You will achieve enlightenment, or similar.
Instead, use student testimonials. They are a great way to convey the impact the Level One program can have on peoples’ lives.
6. If trainer photos are included, use an image with a head cover (like when teaching).

Part 3: Optional Content

1. Yogi Bhajan Bio:

Yogi Bhajan, Master of Kundalini Yoga, arrived in the United States in 1969 with a stated purpose: "I have come to create Teachers, not to gather disciples." For over 30 years, he traveled internationally teaching Kundalini Yoga, the Yoga of Awareness. In 1994, the International Kundalini Yoga Teachers Association, (IKYTA), was formed to make available these priceless teachings through networks of Kundalini Yoga teachers worldwide. Through The Aquarian Teacher™ program, the legacy of Yogi Bhajan continues to train thousands of KRI Certified Kundalini Yoga Teachers every year.

- c. KRI Level Three: Teacher - Realization.
